NARRATIVE:

Razo, an active member of the Bell Gardens street gang, has an extensive adult criminal history that began at the age of 18 and includes carjacking, illegal possession of a concealed firearm, possession of firearm with violent prior conviction, felon in possession of firearm, possession of controlled substance, illegal possession of ammunition, disorderly conduct, parole violations, and violation of supervised release. Razo has served five prison terms, the longest being 48 months for possession of firearm with violent prior. He was released most recently, to the supervision of the Los Angeles County Probation Department on 01/15/2012. Under the Governor's Public Safety Realignment Act of 2011, better known as Assembly Bill 109 (AB 109) the responsibility of lower-level offenders was shifted from the State to Los Angeles County. He subsequently failed to report to his probation officer and an arrest warrant was issued in September 2013 after Razo absconded from post release community supervision (PRCS). Razo qualified to be released to the supervision of probation, under AB 109, because his current commitment offense for possession of firearm by ex-felon is defined as non-serious and non-violent under the California penal code. His prior criminal history, status as an active gang member, and current failure to comply with the terms of release make him a most wanted. If you know his whereabouts please contact...
